Counties in Tennessee Eligible For USDA Emergency Farm Loans

Washington, D. C., May 8, 2003 -- President Bush declared a Major disaster in Tennessee based on damages and losses caused by severe storms, tornadoes, and flooding that occurred from May 4, 2003, and continuing.

The following Arkansas county(s) are also eligible because they are contiguous to the disaster declared counties in Tennessee:

Mississippi

Farmers in the disaster area have until January 8, 2004, to apply for the loans to help cover part of their actual losses. To be eligible, producers must have suffered a physical loss or at least a 30-percent loss of normal production in a single enterprise, be able to repay the loan and any other loans, be unable to obtain credit elsewhere, and have adequate security.

Additional information regarding eligibility and other loan requirements may be obtained by contacting your local FSA county office. The Farm Service Agency is an Equal Opportunity Lender.
